Re: Native Village of Nunapitchuk IRA constitutional revision

February 25, 2005

Dear Mr. de Asis and Mr. Bunch:

The Nunapitchuk IRA Council is resubmitting the tribal resolution by which it had previously requested a Secretarial election for the purpose of adopting a new and fully revised constitution for the Native Village of Nunapitchuk IRA Tribal Government. We are also resubmitting the new and revised constitution itself, as well as a list of eligible voters. All of these documents were submitted to BIA well over a year ago, but appear to have gotten lost in the Interior process somewhere, as neither the D.C. BIA office nor the Solicitor's Office have any record of what may have happened with them.

The Tribal Council requests, as before, that the Secretary simply call for an election to ratify or adopt this new constitution in its entirety, in accordance with 25 U.S.C. § 476(c)(1)(A) and 25 C.F.R. § 81.7, rather than treating this as an election on a package of amendments to the current IRA constitution under 25 U.S.C. § 476(c)(1)(B). This is a thorough-enough revision of the constitution that an item-by-item vote on each change would be difficult if not impossible, making it far more practical to simply hold a single vote on this new constitution as a whole. A single vote to ratify or adopt the new constitution as a whole would appear to be all that is required here, as there would be no need to vote to separately revoke the 1940 Nunapitchuk IRA constitution when 25 C.F.R. § 81.1(r) defines "revocation" as a "vote to abandon [an IRA] form of government, as opposed to [a] vote to amend or totally revise it." Since Nunapitchuk would not be voting to abandon its IRA form of government, but to totally revise its IRA constitution instead, a single vote to ratify or adopt this totally revised constitution should be enough.

We further ask that this request be expedited to the fullest extent possible. Our Tribe has been working on this constitutional revision for some years now, and it is our hope that this revision will be voted on by our tribal members at the earliest possible date, given the delay that has resulted from these materials getting lost in the Interior process.

We are also resubmitting what the IRA Council believes is a full and correct list of all members of the Tribe who are 18 years of age or older, and who would therefore be eligible to vote in an election on whether to adopt this proposed Constitution. The attached resolution certifies this list as true and correct, to the best knowledge of the Council. The Nunapitchuk IRA Council recognizes that a final voting list of registered voters would need to be compiled by an election board composed of two tribal representatives and the BIA officer in charge of overseeing the election.

Thank you for your assistance in calling for and conducting this election, and for trying to expedite this request as much as possible on resubmission of these materials.

Sincerely,

Native Village of Nunapitchuk

As such, we ordain and institute this constitution to promote our community's general Security, Social, Economic, and Political progress by authority of the Indian Reorganization Act of June18, 1934, as amended.

Section 1. Base Membership. The base membership of the Native Village of Nunapitchuk shall consist of all Alaskan Natives whose names appear on the roll of Native Village of Nunapitchuk, approved by the IRA Council at the time of the adoption of this Constitution. However, the fact that someone's name does not appear on the roll does not necessarily mean that the person is not a tribal member, and so as long as the omitted person is eligible for tribal membership, that person may be considered a tribal member under the customary and traditional law of the tribe.

Section 2. Qualifications for New Membership. Any person of Alaska Native descent who meets any one of the following qualifications shall be eligible to be a member of the Native Village of Nunapitchuk:

(c) All persons of one-fourth Alaska Native blood who are adopted by tribal members, or whom the Tribe decides to adopt as a tribal member, shall become eligible for enrollment at the discretion of the Council.

Section 3. Loss of Membership. Any member may willingly give up his membership, so long as the IRA Council determines that the relinquishment of membership will not place other tribal members at risk of harm and the Council formally accepts the member's relinquishment of membership. If a member moves from a village, he shall lose his membership, but only if the member expresses in writing an intent not to return, the IRA Council formally recognizes this intent not to return, declares that the disenrollment of the member would not risk harm to other members of the Tribe , then formally disenrolls the member. All members shall be considered members until such time as they have been formally disenrolled.

Section 4. Regulations of Membership. The Native Village of Nunapitchuk possesses and asserts its fullest sovereign powers, including its sovereign immunity from suit, and its ability to prevent the sale, disposition, lease or encumbrance of tribal lands, interests in land, or other tribal assets, without the full consent of Tribe. Nothing in this Constitution shall be deemed or construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Native Village of Nunapitchuk, or as a waiver of the Tribes power to prevent the sale, disposition, or loss of tribal lands and other assets. The sovereign immunity of Native Village of Nunapitchuk protects the Tribe and its agencies from suit, and further protects individual tribal officials and employees from being sued over official actions they have taken within the scope of their authority, or the Tribe's authority.

Section 2. Waiver of Sovereign Immunity. The sovereign immunity of the Native Village of Nunapitchuk may only be waived by resolution of the Tribal Council present and voting, and by subsequent ratification by the general membership of the Native Village of Nunapitchuk, with at least 30 % of eligible voters voting, and a majority of these voting members voting in favor of a waiver of sovereign immunity. To be effective, any such resolution must expressly state that the sovereign immunity of the Tribe is being waived, and must be specified rather than general in nature. To be effective, the resolution must specifically state, and be limited to, the duration, grantee, and transaction that will be subject to the waiver of the sovereign immunity, and must specifically state as well the court that will have jurisdiction over any suit, and the applicable law that will be applied.

Section 3. Consent to the Sale, Disposition, Lease or Encumbrance of Tribal Lands, Interests in Lands, or Other Tribal Assets. No waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe shall be deemed a consent to the levy of any judgment, lien, or attachment upon the property of the Tribe. The Native Village of Nunapitchuk's power to prevent the sale, disposition, lease, or encumbrance of tribal lands, interests in lands, or other tribal assets without the full consent of the Tribe shall continue in force, regardless of any waiver of sovereign immunity that may have been duly enacted by the Tribal Council. For tribal lands, interests in lands, or other tribal assets to be subject to judgment, lien, or attachment, the Tribal Council must separately and specifically consent by resolution, with at least four members of the Council present and voting in favor of such consent. The sale, disposition, lease or encumbrance of tribal lands, interests in lands, or other tribal assets for any other purpose must also be duly consented to by resolution, with at least four members of the Council present and voting in favor of such consent. Any such consent must be specific rather than general, and be limited as to duration, grantee, transaction, property, and funds, if any, of the Tribe that are subject to such consent. No sale, disposition, lease, or encumbrance of tribal lands, interests in lands, or other tribal assets shall be allowed unless a majority of 30% of the eligible voters approve of a council decision to do so, in an election.

Section 4. No General Waiver or Consent. General waivers of sovereign immunity, and general consents to the sale, disposition, lease or encumbrance of the tribal lands, interests in lands, or other tribal assets, are unconstitutional, and are thus invalid and without effect. Any ambiguity or lack of specificity in a waiver of sovereign immunity or consent shall be construed in favor of the Tribe, and in favor of the narrowest reasonable interpretation of the scope of such waiver or consent.

WHEREAS The Tribal Council having on this day reviewed the attached List of All Members of the Tribe Over 18 Years of Age, and Therefore Eligible to
